WHEN TO USE IT

Use CP&P Form 11-91 to request from outside medical providers the health records of a child in CP&P's care, when the records or information are required to obtain, provide or coordinate the medical treatment of that child. It is not to be used to request substance abuse treatment records or psychotherapy notes.

HOW TO USE IT

When seeking to obtain medical records or information necessary to provide, obtain or coordinate the medical treatment of a child in CP&P's care, the assigned worker is responsible for specifying the information sought, providing an address (mailing or electronic) for delivery of that information, and providing the completed form to the outside medical provider in possession of those records or information.

Non-DCF mailing and email addresses may not be used to receive health information under any circumstances.

DISTRIBUTION

Original - Once signed, file in the health information section of the child's case record, or in the foster/adoptive home record or other file maintained by CP&P, as applicable.

Copy - To each provider of medical or health records sought by CP&P.
